I understand that it is the policy of the Maine Water Co. to have a representative of the property owner present whenever water is turned on or turned off at a property location. I hereby request that Maine Water waive this policy in this particular case for my personal convenience.

I understand that significant property damage can occur in certain situations where water is turned on or turned off. I am willing to accept full responsibility for any damage that occurs to my property or other property, as a result of Maine Water Company's actions. I do this in full knowledge of the situation with my water system.

I will indemnify and hold harmless The Maine Water Company, and its agents & Employees in the case of any damage done by and/or resulting from these procedures.
